Met zijn boek God als misvatting rekende Richard Dawkins af met het geloof als middel om de werkelijkheid te begrijpen. Maar God is niet de enige bedreiging van de wetenschap en van het gezonde verstand. Ook de belangstelling voor astrologie, homeopathie en andere pseudowetenschappen blijft Richard Dawkins een doorn in het oog. Waarom wil de mens zo graag bedrogen worden door sprookjes en mythen? De vraag stellen is hem beantwoorden: de mens wil graag verleid worden door mooie verhalen. Er is geen enkele reden om daarvoor het terrein van de wetenschap te verlaten want Een regenboog ontrafelen is precies dát: een mooi verhaal. De verklaringen die de wetenschap heeft te bieden, bevatten juist vaak de meeste schoonheid. Er schuilt poëzie in de formules, en gelukkig hebben we Richard Dawkins om dat te laten zien.'
